Anna Reeve: Facilitator

Background

Anna is an accomplished leadership and organisational consultant and facilitator with close to twenty years of international consulting experience across the corporate and public sectors. She has worked with leaders and their teams in complex and dynamic business environments in a wide range of industries including financial services, mining and resources, professional services, publishing and education, pharmaceuticals, retail, telecommunications and infrastructure.

Anna began her career in the Australian Public Service as a graduate in the Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade. She spent seven years in DFAT, initially in the International Security Division, and then at the Australian Embassy in Tokyo. Anna then moved to the private sector after completing an MBA in France and became a strategy consultant at Deloitte in London. Her passion for people and learning inspired her to shift her consulting focus to organisational development and she joined and subsequently became a partner at London-based leadership and organisational consultancy Stanton Marris.

Anna's work with people, teams and organisations has ranged from one-to-one leadership and team coaching to leading an award-winning employee engagement program for Europe's largest council reaching over 35,000 employees. Anna established her own business in 2011 and has focused on raising the capability and effectiveness of leaders so they can make greater and more meaningful contributions to their teams and organisations.

Anna is a facilitator at Executive Leadership Australia, an organisation which excels in bringing evidence-based leadership practices to its client interventions that consistently produce sustainable results. Alongside her facilitation expertise, Anna brings deep curiosity and respect to working with groups to enable insight and wisdom to emerge in dialogue.

Anna has worked in a wide variety of organisations during her consulting career including: BHP, Wesfarmers (Coles, Kmart), ANZ, NAB, Transurban, Goldman Sachs, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, City of Melbourne, UK Home Office, UK communications regulator Ofcom, Birmingham City Council, and various UK PLCs including Glaxo SmithKline, Pearson, Rexam, and Dixons Carphone.
